

Life Is Not Straight Forever

This is it, don't ever use yesterday as a reference point of what today or tomorrow will bring forth because you are neither God nor Creator, based on this, whatever wealth you possess today that makes you to be bragging and barking, it's just what God had put in your custody that can be at anytime taken away out of your care to another guardian and you the so called Afenifere people, who should know better because of your past political experience, that no matter what, things don't last forever. This is telling you not to be duplicitous, double tongued, two faced and ambidextrous; call back to mind, that any evil you fail to rebuke, will later come up to rebuke you; any slave you are fearful of or timid to bind and limit, will later come up to bind and limit you, "failure from being in haste to catch a thief on a farm, the thief has turned back to catch the farmer".

How would it be hearable that the dog has turned back to fight the lion; how would it be ascertained that the dead has risen to attack the living; how would it be perceived that the donkey has turned to ride the owner; how would it be definite that the master is now serving the slave; how would it be discovered that the below has come up to rule the above; how would it be justifiable that the darkness has come up to govern the light; how will it be righteous that the beast has come up to lord over man and how would it be divine that hell has come up to dominate heaven? This is a message to every "kaaro ojire" people with a definite Yoruba DNA including myself that the time has come and is ripe for us to thank God on behalf of the Igbo people, that their long time agitation and prayer to secede from Nigeria has finally been granted and answered.

Even the Northerners, who were considered to be the greater stumbling block from permitting the secession or from permitting them to secede; have now said they can go in the spirit of referendum, how better would you want God to answer prayer than this. There is one Yoruba Pastor/Prophet, who said that he saw something great of God in Nnamadi Kanu, that if Nigeria wants unity to reign in the country, that they should quickly dialogue with Nnamadi Kanu, that probably to grant him what he desired, that is 2019 presidential mandate; if that is all the agitation and prayer is all about, I don't think God has definitely revealed the true heart of Kanu to the Yoruba prophet. Kanu symbolizes Igbos and all he wanted is freedom from Nigeria for biafra, dialogue or no dialogue, debate or no debate, compromise or no compromise and mandate or no mandate; all what Kanu symbolizes is freedom of biafra from Nigeria.

On this note, it would be quite ridiculous, silly, preposterous, deplorable and pitiful of us Yorubas to see Nnamadi Kanu as our bridegroom before whom we have adorned and arrayed ourselves as bride forgetting that Lagos state and all Yoruba land are in anarchy of who is trying to out number one another between the rightful owners and foriegners, that will later determine who should take over because it doesn't matter, it doesn't matter, will later translate evil over good and foriegners over "omo onile"; and there has been a constant use of words and language from a great number of Igbo people, that after all, they have helped to better and develop every part of Nigeria. This is an insult and arrogance, they are the reason why the Western region has not become UK or better than UK. What about our neighbouring countries like Republic of Benin, Ghana and Cote D'Ivoire, are they the reason of their development and better life?

The ego or self esteem that prompted them is because of their self centeredness and extreme selfishness with the belief that no one should share anything with them, that has made it difficult for any non-igbo people or tribe to have land properties, houses, industries, businesses, small or large scale enterprises and etcetera in any of the five Igbo-speaking states of the country. This does not mean they are in any way superior from other people who could not come into their land and do something great, if you want to look at it, mostly in the western world, where things are orderly and properly programmed and executed, you will find that the Yorubas are the greatest beneficiaries, talk of having landed properties, large or small scale enterprises, excelling in different fields of profession, including spiritual establishment of life, buying and acquiring large established businesses and organizations.

Putting all these together, Yorubas don't need the Igbos in any part of their land before they can be excellently, exceptionally and unimaginably developed to an apex where their name will be equally mentioned not with developing countries but with developed countries. Finally, the Holy Spirit told me that the prayers of the three major tribes in Nigeria have been finally answered and two of the major tribes, Yoruba and Hausa must properly, fearlessly, gracefully and thankfully take the advantage of the answered prayers that has biblical interpretation for the three major tribes; Isaiah 55:8-9 says "for my thoughts are not your thoughts neither are your ways my ways, saith the Lord. For as the heavens are higher than the earth, so are my ways higher than your ways, and my thoughts than your thoughts". The Holy Spirit says God has inexplicably concluded how this statement will come to pass regarding each of the three major tribes in Nigeria, in Jesus mighty name, settled.
