

The Real and the Unreal Life

The only divine covenant of the real life is the Word of God far contrary from the unreal life, the cursed life which is the world so I am putting it in this way that no matter what, at the end of everything, the world will still serve the Word. You should understand what I am saying that no matter how diabolically, deviously, fiendishly and manipulatively the world rises up to be great, it will still fall, fail and vanish because however it appears or looks, it is still not real. The only certified and accurate spiritual interpretation regarding the world contrary from the Word is all about the devil whose life breaks into three explanations, lust of the flesh, lust of the eyes and fame of life, all of which are ephemeral; know this that 2 Corinthians 4:4 called the devil the god of this world, which can give us the vivid knowledge of how very authentic he is the world.

In Matthew 4:8-9, when the devil took Jesus Christ to a high exceeding mountain and showed him all the kingdoms of the world and the glory of them proving and demonstrating to Him (Jesus) that he owns the world and he is of the world and for Jesus Christ to enjoy the world with him, He (Jesus) should be in agreement with him to destroy and be destroying the handwork of God which is the meaning of fall down and worship me and Jesus replied him, the world shall worship and serve the Word; what is the reason for this reply? The reason for this reply is because the world is ephemeral, terminable and endable contrary from the Word which is eternal and unending.

I still want to establish that the realms of life are not limited to two as far as where human beings will come to live, from time into eternity, from time to oblivion and from time to expiration is concerned, so we have three kinds of life; the real life, the unreal life and the vain life. As I am saying, the real life is Jesus Christ so it abides forever in what ever He does, makes, gives and takes you to. This is found in Ecclesiastes 3:14a which says "I know that whatsoever God doeth, it shall be for ever: nothing can be put to it, nor any thing taken from it". This is contrary from what the devil can do or give. The book of Revelation 12:12b says "woe to the inhabitants of the earth and of the sea! for the devil is come down unto you, having great wrath, because he knoweth that he hath but a short time".

This has revealed that whatever the devil does, gives or makes is for a short time, it will soon expire. The only life of every good thing, name it, which you can receive and abides forever without an iota of any likelihood of expiration is unarguably the life of Jesus Christ. Every other life, apart from the life of Lord Jesus Christ, can equally give you certain good things but those things will soon regrettably in no longer a time fizzle out and cease to be because they are of the devil. This is what the bible coded in 1John 2:16-17, "for all that is in the world, the lust of the flesh, and the lust of the eyes, and the pride of life, is not of the Father, but is of the world. And the world passeth away, and the lust thereof: but he that doeth the will of God abideth for ever".

So the explanation here is, the life of every good thing that is subject to expiration, corruption and destruction is nothing but the world which is by interpretation the unreal life and the life of every good thing which abides forever is no any life other than heaven, which of course mentioned in the above as the real life. The third life which is the vain life, is the life of man. It has no substantiated life of any good thing to give you other than good things of mirage or an illusion, mind you, an illusion is neither of heaven nor of the world but of self or ego as it is written in Luke 12: 19-20a "and I will say to my soul, thou hast much goods laid up for many years; take thine ease, eat, drink and be merry, but God said unto him, thou fool, this night thy soul shall be required of thee". As somebody who want to have an everlasting relationship with God, make a choice from any of the three categories of life. Till another time on this same platform for more of God's heart beating, touching and timeless messages through the golden pen of the Holy spirit and ink blood of Jesus Christ altogether in a two-edged sword of the Word of God to every creature. Thank you. Shalom.
