

The Whole Living and Obvious Attributes

The whole ever continuing, true and transparent attributes must always be addressed to the visionary and founder of every bible believing Church, the predecessor and not the successor. It doesn't matter how infinitesimally small number of members and Churches the predecessor left behind, the whole attributes should still be addressed to him. The successor must not hijack the attributes lest tomorrow will speak judgement against him and his progenitors because whoever builds on an already made foundation must always know that he is one of the branches not the vineyard and cannot on its own bear fruits except for the nutrients he derives from the vineyard as it applies to other branches. I am not saying this from my academic, intellectual, head or religious knowledge, I am saying this spiritually in line with the light of the Word of God as it is written in the gospel of John 15:5 "I am the vine, ye are the branches: he that abideth in Me, and I in him, the same bringeth forth much fruit: for without Me ye can do nothing".

Also in 1 Corinthians 3:11, it says "for other foundation can no man lay than that is laid, which is Jesus Christ". In all these, the definite and vivid number of the people or souls believed to have been won by Jesus himself in his lifetime were not more than one hundred and twenty people. This is found in the book of Acts 1:15 "and in those days Peter stood up in the midst of the disciples, and said, (the number of names were about an hundred and twenty,)" in comparison to the three thousand souls won by Peter in a single preaching meeting as written in Acts 2:41 "then they that gladly received his word were baptized: and the same day there were added unto them about three thousand souls", excluding the incalculable number of people won by Apostle Paul and other disciples, this did not give any of them the right to ascribe any credit or attribute to themselves but in all ascribed all the attributes, credit and glory to Jesus Christ.

Couldn't this be the best precedent for all the so called men of God that are successors of every founder and visionary of bible believing Churches because we are here on earth, as levities among Israelites and as men of God among Christians, to do the work of God not as self or family oriented business but to primarily and objectively render the divine service of God anywhere, anytime to all humanity with Godly reverence, love, justice and equity, by looking unto Jesus Christ, the author and the finisher of our faith in the belief that in return, Jesus Christ is looking at everyone, so whatever you do and however you do it, inevitably you will one day stand before God's presence of justice. What will be your excuse? I am sent to you by the leading of the Spirit of the living God, don't undermine this message, I know you are big men of God celebrated almost everywhere in the world but everywhere in the world does not equal one day before Him, undress yourselves to redress up and look less at yourselves to see more of who you are before Him and you will see nothing other than He who lives from everlasting to everlasting. Thank you. Shalom.

Evangelist Paul Balogun.
